Rachael Leah Agnello

(878) 208-2360
rachaelagnello@pitt.edu

EDUCATION	Master of Science in Quantitative Economics 2022

University of Pittsburgh
- Studied economic theory and data analysis with an emphasis on real-world problem solving and analytic storytelling

Bachelor of Arts (Double Major) in Economics and Conflict Analysis & Resolution   2017

George Mason University
- Received a four-year, full-tuition merit scholarship from the Honors College, the highest academic distinction available to undergraduate students

SKILLS R, Python, SQL, Tableau, Github, Excel, Salesforce

EXPERIENCE Capstone Project Team Member   January 2022 to present

Sheetz, Inc.
- Analyzing big data using R and Tableau to create a spatial model of demand for Sheetz locations

Team Member   January 2022 to February 2022

University of Pittsburgh Super Analytics Challenge
- Representing Pitt by delivering an analytics solution to a large nonprofit recipient organization

Program Officer   August 2019 to August 2021

Cultural Vistas
- Facilitated and monitored the outbound side of an international fellowship grant from the State Department called CBYX for Young Professionals
- Designed and implemented all fellow and stakeholder surveys, reported findings
- Managed, designed, and evaluated new candidate selection process
- Selected in May 2020 as one of four employees, and the only non-director-level employee, out of 100 to lead a Scrum/Agile team that found new, pandemic-era business opportunities for the organization and presented to the board the results, which are currently being implemented

Program Assistant   June 2017 to July 2019

American Council on Germany (ACG)
- Served as primary point of contact for all activity within the ACG's 21 Warburg chapters
- Received feedback from chapter directors and members and evaluated programming
- Assisted with writing and submitting grant applications and reports
- Managed program budgets by maintaining spreadsheets and filing receipts

Fully-Funded Fellow   July 2015 to July 2016

Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals
- One of 75 Americans to receive a fellowship to spend one year in Germany
- Attended an intensive language school, studied at a German university, volunteered in the community, and held a six-month, German-language, paid internship

Edelman – Frankfurt   February 2016 to July 2016

PR Intern (German-speaking, paid)
- Worked at the largest PR agency in the world on two different teams to support the PR needs of local and international pharmaceutical clients

Intern   May to August 2014 and 2015

U.S. House of Representatives
- Recorded constituent communication in Leidos IQ
- Explained the Congressman's policy positions to constituents over the phone and in writing